

Alberta Men's Hockey League

2017- 2018 Winter Season

The Alberta Men's Hockey League is now accepting team applications for the 2017-2018 winter season.

Highlights regarding the winter season include:

- 30 regular season games, plus playoffs for teams that qualify.
- All games are 1.5 hours with a flood every two periods.
- All playoff series are a 'best of three' format.
- The best ice times available for adult hockey – late weeknight games are minimized. On average teams will have 5-6 games during regular season that start at 10:30 PM or later on evenings preceding a weekday (i.e. Sunday through Thursday night).
- Quality facilities – showers at all arenas used. Arenas include Knights of Columbus, Argyll, Clare Drake (U of A), CAC, and various City of Edmonton arenas.
- Quality officiating – two referees and one timekeeper scheduled for every game.
- Attentive customer service.
- Statistics posted by noon the following day.
- Schedules posted well in advance.
- Divisional placement based on team's playing ability. Divisional realignment is done around game 6 and game 15 if required.
- High caliber hockey in the upper divisions.
- Safety of players is a priority for the league.
- Individual and team awards presented to regular season leaders in each division including Top Team, Highest Points and Lowest Goals Against.
- Trophies given to first and second place teams in playoffs
- Team fees include player accident insurance.

The winter season will start on September 5th. Playoffs are in April.

Team Roster

Teams may register up to 30 players. Player registration for the winter season will commence around late July. Team Representatives for all teams participating in the winter season will receive an email from League Administration in July with instructions for the player registration system. For players who are unable to use the online registration system, paper forms will be available. The registration deadline for the winter season is October 31 and all players must register before they play their first game or by October 31, whichever comes first.

Need players?

We will be compiling a list of individual players who are looking for a team to play on. If you need players to fill your roster, please request the list of available players by emailing amhl@shaw.ca or call 780-249-5665. The list of available players will only be given to team representatives after the deposit has been received.

Please contact us if you have any questions.
