

Aldergrove Minor Baseball Association recognizes the need to support our volunteers and set a minimum level of expectations for the parents of the players involved in our system. The Parent’s Code of Conduct is intended to establish a policy that will maintain a level of mutual respect to the game.

Every parent will be asked to sign and return this prior to FILL IN DATE HERE.

Failure to abide by the code of conduct will result in a warning. Repeated breach of the code may result in suspension from team events.

24 HOUR RULE

I agree that I will not discuss any concerns from a game, practice or team event with any member of the team staff for a period of 24 hours after the game, practice or team event unless requested to by a team official.

In addition I will review the issue with my son/daughter and then if I feel it needs to be addressed, I will approach the team staff and respect the process that is in place for the resolution of team issues.

BENCH

I will not approach the bench during or at the conclusion of a game, skills or practice session unless asked to do so by a team official.

If my child is injured I will await instructions from the team staff that is certified and equipped to deal with the situation. As a parent I acknowledge and respect the relationship and commitment my son/daughter makes to be a member of a team. I realize and understand that my son/daughter needs to adhere to the values and goals of their team staff and the Aldergrove Minor Baseball Association in order to learn individual and team skills. As a role model for my child I agree to conduct myself in a manner that will allow the values and goals of the team and the organization to be achieved. The code of conduct has been created to guide parents to achieve a level of mutual respect that will allow all sports participants to enjoy the full benefit of the events.
