

“EXCELLENCE IS A HABIT” SUMMER CAMP

PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy of the camp will be for the participants to have fun while being focused and challenged to improve skills. Soccer is Everything's summer camp provides a positive learning environment with world class instructors. All participants are encouraged to make excellence a habit on and off the field.

STAFF

Sean Fleming, one of the most successful National Youth Coaches in Canada, will lead a great staff of instructors for the camp. Fleming qualified for two consecutive U 17 World Cups (2011, 2013) and achieved Canada's highest ever ranking at the World Cup level. He had a 4 game unbeaten streak between the two World Cups, something that has never been done by any Canadian team at any level. Sean holds the highest coaching license in Canada and has instructed the national A&B license courses. He is one of the original members of the CSA Long Term Player Development Committee and had an intimate knowledge of development of athletes of all ages. A former educator who has been nominated provincially and nationally for excellence in teaching, Sean has extensive experience coaching male and female players across all age levels.

Confirmed instructors include Julia Ignacio, Julia has playing experience at the club, provincial and national team level. She represented Canada at the U17 FIFA World Cup in New Zealand in 2008 and also played in the NCAA Division I at the University of Memphis (2008-2011). Julia finished her university career as a University of Alberta Panda (2013-2015) and currently plays for Edmonton's Northwest United Major League Soccer Team. Julia is also an ASA Provincial B Licensed coach who has been involved with several provincial programs and is currently a teacher/soccer academy at St. Nicholas Junior High.

Other instructors include former professional, national and university players who are nationally certified coaches. The instructors are upmost professionals and will engage with the participants to support them be the best that they can be.
