

ANNUAL AWARDS PROGRAM

The Little League Alberta Awards Program is held annually at the Little League Alberta Annual Meeting and Conference. Little League Alberta is proud to partner with the League and District members to recognize key individuals from around Alberta.

Little League Alberta covers the cost of the plaque or award engraved for each person. The nominating league or district is responsible for the cost of the gift each person receives on behalf of Little League (dependent on their years of service).

We encourage all Little Leagues and District Associations to participate in this worthwhile program and showcase their deserving personnel in front the Little League family in the province!

Do not hesitate to contact the Little League Alberta office for any further information!!

Welcome Awards

It takes special people to volunteer for Little League Alberta, whether it be a League President, District Administrator, LLA Board Member, or LLA Standing Committee member. This award will be given to all new members as a welcome from Little League Alberta at their 1st Annual Meeting!

Leagues are welcome to have these awards given to their Board and/or Committee members if desired. The cost is nominal. To do so, please email your District Administrator or Little League Alberta to have the welcome awards ready for your deserving volunteers as well.

LITTLE LEAGUE ALBERTA Exemplary Service Awards

Every League and District operates with volunteers who provide the commitment to keep the organizations' functioning. However, there are often one or two key individuals who stand out with their contributions, perseverance, and extraordinary dedication to the Executive, Board, or Membership that deserves to be recognized.

Each League or District is able to select up to 2 individuals annually to receive this special award.
