The notes below are from the rationale of the proposed amendment which was passed at the 2002 B.C. Lacrosse Association Annual General Meeting. The notes themselves were not voted on as an amendment to the operating policy. The amendment was passed based on the rationale and it is reprinted here for convenience and understanding of the different tiers for the fee structure.

Senior C Division and Recreational Fees

The Senior C Division, being new, should have a graduated fee structure to full fees. There are three (3) leagues that are currently playing as Senior B or Recreational. Those leagues are Prince George Senior B, Okanagan Senior B and Vancouver Island Recreational. Under the new proposed Senior C registration fee structure, the existing leagues should start their fees for the 2003 playing year as follows:

Prince George Senior B	Full fees for registration, insurance and team fee
Okanagan X Senior B	Full fees for registration, insurance and team fee
Vancouver Island Rec	Full fees for insurance and team, but entry to Senior C at Year 2 which is $25.00 per player.

If a new Senior C League starts up from an area that does not currently have any organized Senior lacrosse, then they will start at Year 1 registration fees and graduate up to full fees after three years. They will be required to pay full insurance and team fees from Year One on.

If a new Senior C League starts up from an area that currently does have organized Senior Lacrosse (i.e., Lower Mainland), then they will start up at registration fees of Year 2, and graduate up the following year to full fees. They will be required to pay full insurance and team fees from the start.

If a recreational team starts a Senior C League or joins an existing Senior C League, then they will continue to pay full team and insurance fees. The registration fees paid will move from the level they paid for recreational to the next level up in Senior C (i.e., if a recreational team paid $15.00 for Year 1 in 2002, and in 2003 moved to Senior C, they would pay $35.00 or level Year 2 for Senior C, and in 2004 graduate to full Senior C fees).

APPENDIX C: FAIR PLAY CODES

FAIR PLAY Philosophy

Fair play is an attitude, a way of thinking. It can be taught and it can be learned. Once it's learned, it can apply to every aspect of a person's life. That's why fair play is so important and that's why all of us are responsible. At Fair Play Canada, they believe that the fair play philosophy becomes reality through the creation of a more ethical sport system, one that is democratic, open to all Canadians, and grounded in the principles of integrity, fairness and respect. Through sport, athletes learn about setting goals, working hard and having fun. They learn to respect their own abilities, and those of their competitors, and to value the effort of all participants, regardless of ability. When guided appropriately, athletes begin to realize that the joy of sport is as much in the effort as in the result.

Developing a more ethical sport system means addressing tough issues like violence and equity. In turn, both of those issues include difficult areas such as sexual harassment, the principles of team selection and participant involvement. Through fair play resources, advocacy, communications and training, we're working with partners at the national, provincial and municipal levels to create an atmosphere in which coaches, athletes, administrators and educators can make every athlete's sport experience a positive experience. They believe in an alternative and positive sport-model, one that closes the gap between fair play as a vision and fair play as a reality. We welcome your involvement.

FAIR PLAY Issues

To ensure a fair playing field, everyone involved in sport must support the principles of fair play – fairness, integrity and respect. When consistently applied, they not only provide a clear ethical framework for competition, but greater opportunities for getting the most out of the game. That's because they help participants focus on achievement rather than the desire to conquer an opponent.

Violence. Any physical aggression outside the rules of a sport is violence. Violence in sport reflects violence in our society; on television or the evening news, so too may we come to accept it as a fact of life in sport. It shouldn't be. The sport system must look at minimizing sources of frustration and at using the appropriate tools to control inappropriate behaviour. Officials must be empowered to enforce the rules.

Doping and Other Methods of Cheating. Winning is a reward for effort, will, discipline and talent. Violating the rules by taking performance-enhancing drugs or gaining any other unfair advantage over a competitor has nothing to do with winning; it's a form of cheating. It means that the participants are no longer all playing the same game; it demeans the efforts of every other participant, the integrity of the game and the essence of sport.

Respect. Unhealthy attitudes are just as harmful to the value and purpose of sport as unhealthy play. When opponents are viewed as enemies, officials are treated with contempt, and rules are seen only as obstacles to be overcome, nobody wins. Respect for the rules and for everyone involved is fundamental to the quality of sport and the integrity of the game.

Equal Opportunities and Fair Access. Sport is for everyone, regardless of age, sex, race or ability. Sport can have numerous benefits for everyone. All Canadians should have a range of choices and opportunities to be involved in sport.

FAIR PLAY: An Athlete's Role

Everyone involved in sport, from parents and spectators to athletes, officials and coaches, can and should play a part in promoting fair play. And the easiest way to do this is to lead by example; to always respect the written and unwritten rules of the game. It is also essential to learn how to constructively manage stress so that fair play skills and instincts will not be lost in the heat of competition. Here are some examples of how you can incorporate fair play into your sport or recreation activity.

As an athlete you have an opportunity to get the best out of sport. You can:

- Participate because you want to, not just because your parent or coach wants you to.
- Co-operate and respect your coach, teammates and opponents, because without them, there would be no game.
- Always try to control your temper. Competition is stressful and can provoke powerful emotions, but fighting and mouthing off spoil the game for everyone.
- Remember that winning isn't everything. While it's great to win, it should always be fun to play.

FAIR PLAY CODES FOR ATHLETES

1. I will participate because I want to, not just because my parents or coaches want me to.
2. I will play by the rules, and in the spirit of the game.
3. I will control my temper – fighting and mouthing off can spoil the activity for everybody.
4. I will respect my opponents.
5. I will do my best to be a true team player.
6. I will remember that winning isn't everything – that having fun, improving skills, making friends and doing my best are also important.
7. I will acknowledge all good players/performance – those of my team and of my opponents.
8. I will remember that coaches and officials are there to help me. I will accept their decisions and show them respect.

FAIR PLAY: A Coach's Role

Everyone involved in sport, from parents and spectators to athletes, officials and coaches, can and should play a part in promoting fair play. And the easiest way to do this is to lead by example; to always respect the written and unwritten rules of the game. It is also essential to learn how to constructively manage stress so that fair play skills and instincts will not be lost in the heat of competition. Here are some examples of how you can incorporate fair play into your sport or recreation activity.

As a coach you are a role model and leader, and have significant impact on your athletes' attitudes. You can:

- Encourage your team to respect the opposing team and the rules of the game, to accept the judgements of officials and opposing coaches without argument.
- Teach your players how to manage conflict and stress, and use good judgement in tough situations.
- Avoid overplaying talented players and allow average players equal playing time.
- Remember that children need a coach they can respect. Be generous with praise and set a good example.

FAIR PLAY CODES FOR COACHES

1. I will be reasonable when scheduling games and practices, remembering that young athletes have other interests and obligations.
2. I will teach my athletes to play fairly and to respect the rules, officials and opponents.
3. I will ensure that all athletes get equal instruction, support and playing time.
4. I will not ridicule or yell at my athletes for making mistakes or for performing poorly. I will remember that children play to have fun and must be encouraged to have confidence in themselves.
5. I will make sure that equipment and facilities are safe and match the athletes' ages and abilities.
6. I will remember that children need a coach they can respect. I will be generous with praise and set a good example.
7. I will obtain proper training and continue to upgrade my coaching skills.

FAIR PLAY: An Official's Role

Everyone involved in sport, from parents and spectators to athletes, officials and coaches, can and should play a part in promoting fair play. And the easiest way to do this is to lead by example; to always respect the written and unwritten rules of the game. It is also essential to learn how to constructively manage stress so that fair play skills and instincts will not be lost in the heat of competition. Here are some examples of how you can incorporate fair play into your sport or recreation activity.

As an official, you act as the conscience, reinforcing the Fair Play principals. You can:

- Be consistent and objective in calling infractions, regardless of your personal feelings toward a team or individual player.
- Prevent any players or team staff from intimidating other participants, either by word or action. Similarly, do not tolerate unacceptable conduct toward yourself, other officials, players or spectators.
- Remain open to constructive criticism and try to consider different points of view.
- Respect the athletes, their coaches and parents, and everyone involved in your sport. Remember that you have many shared interests and common sport goals.

FAIR PLAY CODES FOR OFFICIALS

1. I will make sure that every athlete has a reasonable opportunity to perform to the best of his or her ability, within the limits of the rules.
2. I will avoid or put an end to any situation that threatens the safety of the athletes.
3. I will maintain a healthy atmosphere and environment for competition.
4. I will not permit the intimidation of any athlete either by word or by action. I will not tolerate unacceptable conduct toward myself, other officials, athletes or spectators.
5. I will be consistent and objective in calling all infractions, regardless of my personal feelings toward a team or individual athlete.
6. I will handle all conflicts firmly but with dignity.
7. I accept my role as a teacher and role model for fair play, especially with young participants.
8. I will be open to discussion and contact with the athletes before and after the game.
9. I will remain open to constructive criticism and show respect and consideration for different points of view.
10. I will obtain proper training and continue to upgrade my officiating skills.

FAIR PLAY: A Parent's Role

Everyone involved in sport, from parents and spectators to athletes, officials and coaches, can and should play a part in promoting fair play. And the easiest way to do this is to lead by example; to always respect the written and unwritten rules of the game. It is also essential to learn how to constructively manage stress so that fair play skills and instincts will not be lost in the heat of competition. Here are some examples of how you can incorporate fair play into your sport or recreation activity.

As a parent, you have significant impact on how your child feels about his or her achievements in sport, and in all aspects of life. You can:

- Avoid forcing your child to participate in a sport, and remember that your child is playing for his/her enjoyment, not yours.
- Discuss Fair Play issues openly with your child. Encourage him/her to play by the rules and resolve conflicts without resorting to violence. Help them understand that violence is unacceptable in professional sport.
- Teach your child that although it is fun to win, trying hard and doing one's best is really the name of the game. Never ridicule or get angry at your child for making a mistake or losing a competition. Offer constructive advice and assurance that continued effort will make for improved performance the next time out.
- Remember that children learn best by example. Be a supportive and fair spectator. Applaud good plays by members of both teams.

FAIR PLAY CODES FOR PARENTS

1. I will not force my child to participate in sports.
2. I will remember that my child plays sport for his/her enjoyment, not for mine.
3. I will encourage my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.
4. I will teach my child that doing one's best is as important as winning, so that my child will never feel defeated by the outcome of a game/event.

6. I will never ridicule or yell at my child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
7. I will remember that children learn best by example. I will applaud good players/performances by both my child's team and their opponents.
8. I will never question the officials' judgement or honesty in public.
9. I will support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from children's sporting activities.
10. I will respect and show appreciation for the volunteer coaches who give their time to provide sport activities for my child.

FAIR PLAY: An Administrator's Role

Everyone involved in sport, from parents and spectators to athletes, officials and coaches, can and should play a part in promoting fair play. And the easiest way to do this is to lead by example; to always respect the written and unwritten rules of the game. It is also essential to learn how to constructively manage stress so that fair play skills and instincts will not be lost in the heat of competition. Here are some examples of how you can incorporate fair play into your sport or recreation activity.

As a sport administrator, league or club official, you set the tone for fair and ethical competition.

You can:

- Make sure that coaches and officials are capable of promoting fair play as well as the development of sound judgement and good technical skills. Encourage them to become certified.
- Do your best to ensure that all children are given the same chance to participate, regardless of age, gender, ability, ethnic background or race.
- Work toward ensuring that recreation department staff, parents, coaches and participants understand their role and their responsibility for promoting fair play in sports.
- Distribute Fair Play Codes to spectators, coaches, players, officials, parents and news media.

FAIR PLAY CODES FOR ADMINISTRATORS

1. I will do my best to see that all children are given the same chance to participate, regardless of gender, ability, ethnic background or race.
2. I will absolutely discourage any sport program from becoming primarily an entertainment for the spectator.
3. I will make sure that all equipment and facilities are safe and match the athletes' ages and abilities.
4. I will make sure that the age and maturity level of the children are considered in program development, rule enforcement and scheduling.
5. I will remember that play is done for its own sake and make sure that winning is kept in proper perspective.
6. I will distribute the fair play codes to spectators, coaches, athletes, officials, parents and media.
7. I will make sure that coaches and officials are capable of promoting fair play as well as the development of good technical skills, and I will encourage them to become certified.

FAIR PLAY: A Spectator's Role

Everyone involved in sport, from parents and spectators to athletes, officials and coaches, can and should play a part in promoting fair play. And the easiest way to do this is to lead by example; to always respect the written and unwritten rules of the game. It is also essential to learn how to constructively manage stress so that fair play skills and instincts will not be lost in the heat of competition. Here are some examples of how you can incorporate fair play into your sport or recreation activity.

As a spectator, you set the appropriate tone during competition. You can:

- Avoid ridiculing an athlete for making a mistake during competition. Give positive feedback that motivates and encourages continued effort. Remember that children play sport for their own enjoyment, rather than to entertain others.
- Show respect for the coach and the officials, and their decisions.
- Condemn violence and verbal abuse and express your disapproval of such tactics to coaches and league officials.
- Encourage and applaud fair and skillful plays by all participants.

FAIR PLAY CODES FOR SPECTATORS

1. I will remember that children play sport for their enjoyment. They are not playing to entertain me.
2. I will not have unrealistic expectations. I will remember that child athletes are not miniature professionals and cannot be judged by professional standards.
3. I will respect the officials' decisions and I will encourage participants to do the same.
4. I will never ridicule an athlete for making a mistake during a competition. I will give positive comments that motivate and encourage continued effort.
5. I will condemn the use of violence in any form and will express my disapproval in an appropriate manner to coaches and league officials.
6. I will show respect for my team's opponents, because without them, there would be no game.
7. I will not use bad language, nor will I harass athletes, coaches, officials or other spectators.

APPENDIX D: CONDUCT OF HEARINGS BEFORE VARIOUS LACROSSE TRIBUNALS

For those individuals who preside at the hearings of various lacrosse tribunals, there are four cardinal principles. They are as follows:

1. Process is the most important factor in such hearings. The process is how the hearing is conducted. The most important factor is not who wins or loses.
2. The process must be fair.
3. Those who preside must come to the hearing with an open mind.
4. Be polite (even if it is difficult).

There are twelve specific rules which ought to be adhered to. They are as follows:

1. Read over the rules which apply to the particular case before you. You may think you know these rules without reference. You are wrong. Bring the rule book with you. Also bring paper and a pen or pencil.
2. Before the hearing begins, read all the material which has been filed. Note particular questions you may have in the margin.
3. Arrive in good time for the hearing. Do not arrive late.
4. Before the hearing starts, do not talk to the parties who appear before you, unless it is to say simply "hello" or to advise someone where the washroom is. Nothing is more disconcerting to the other side than to see a member of the tribunal in conversation with the other side, even if it only relates to pleasantries.
5. Make sure that the room where the hearing is to take place is properly set up before the hearing starts. If the furniture needs to be rearranged, do this before the scheduled time for the commencement of the hearing.
6. Call the hearing to order, describe the procedure to be followed. Introduce everybody. Although some organizations have both parties in the room at the same time, this may lead to outbursts and could intensify antagonism between the two parties. You may find it preferable to listen to and question each party separately.
Make sure both parties understand the procedure to be used. Whoever has the onus of establishing the facts is heard first.
7. At the end of each side's presentation, if you have a question, ask it then. Do not interrupt the presentation unless absolutely necessary for purposes of clarification.
8. Have paper and pencil available. Make a note when something strikes you as important.
9. The members of the tribunal should retire to consider their decision. This means you must have your own room for your deliberations in the absence of the parties. This may be done by moving into another room or by asking the parties to leave the room you are in.
10. Write out your decision promptly. Give reasons. The reasons may be set up as follows:
 - Describe the issue
 - Set forth the relevant facts
 - Summarize in brief form each side's argument
 - State your findings
 - State your decisionThe reasons do not need to be long, but they must be clear and deal with the issues raised.
11. The written decision should be delivered (by hand, e-mail or mail) to the individual facing the disciplinary action. They should also be advised at that time of the appeal procedure available to them within your organization or through the BCLA.
12. At the end, leave and go home. Do not talk to the parties prior to the decision being delivered.

REMEMBER: At the end, it is important that both sides feel they have been given a fair hearing.

The following are steps in the proper procedure to register players in the Senior Directorate.

THE PLAYER

Complete the form in its entirety . . . Last Year's Team Name,(if applicable) Name, Address, Postal Code, Telephone Number, Birth Date, Medical Insurance Number, and Signature.

THE TEAM MANAGER

- Check that all information required is filled in, including Team Name.
- Check that the Medical Insurance Number is recorded. This is required in order to ascertain that the player does carry or is covered by B.C. Medical Insurance. The insurance provided by the BCLA covers only specific, added, secondary benefits. It is prohibited by law from covering anything normally covered by B.C. Medical Insurance.
- Players who are under 19 years of age at the signing of the registration form must have a parent or guardian's signature on the registration form.
- Be sure the form is dated. Sign in "Authorized Team Official" box.
- Turn completed cards over to your League Commissioner.

THE COMMISSIONER

- Check each form for full information.
- Verify eligibility: age, out-of-province, et cetera.
- Sign each form.
- Turn cards over to the BCLA Senior Registrar.
- Issue league cheque or send club cheques to BCLA office for each card used.

THE REGISTRAR

- Check that all forms are completely filled in and signed.
- Check card numbers against assigned numbers list.
- Date and sign each form.
- Separate each form:
 - 1. original - file
 - 2. centre copy - to Commissioner
 - 3. last copy - to club/team

These are the steps in the initial registration of players prior to the start of the season. As players are cut and/or added, the following is the procedure:

TO ADD ANOTHER PLAYER

When less than twenty-five (25) Juvenile players have been signed, just repeat the above four steps.

When the allowed number for the league has been signed:

- (a) The additional player completes the card (Step One)

- (b) The Team Manager completes Step Two. The Team Manager also pulls the club copy of the player's card who is cut to accommodate the new player.
- (c) The Team Manager turns both cards over to the League Commissioner, along with the required fee, to the BCLA office.
- (d) The Registrar staples all three parts of the "cut" player's forms together and files in the league file.

The Registrar then processes the new player's form as above.

NOTES

The Commissioner must ensure that there are no more than twenty five (25) Juvenile players registered at any one time to a team.

The Registrar must insist that all copies of "cut" players' forms are returned to the BCLA Office.

A player may not sign more than one certificate in any one playing season. If a player is signed by another team in the same year, the BCLA Office must be advised. The Registrar then transfers the original certificate to the new team file, and forwards the centre copy to the League Commissioner and the last copy, with the release completed on the back, to the new team.

SENIOR REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

The following are steps in the proper procedure to register players in the Senior Directorate.

THE PLAYER

Complete the form in its entirety . . . Last Year's Team Name, , Name, Address, Postal Code, Telephone Number, Birth Date, Medical Insurance Number, and Signature.

THE TEAM MANAGER

- Check that all information required is filled in, including Team Name.
- Check that the Medical Insurance Number is recorded. This is required in order to ascertain that the player does carry or is covered by B.C. Medical Insurance. The insurance provided by the BCLA covers only specific, added, secondary benefits. It is prohibited by law from covering anything normally covered by B.C. Medical Insurance.
- Players who are under 19 years of age at the signing of the registration form must have a parent or guardian's signature on the registration form.
- Be sure the form is dated. Sign in "Authorized Team Official" box.
- Turn completed cards over to your League Commissioner.

THE COMMISSIONER

- Check each form for full information.
- Verify eligibility: age, out-of-province, et cetera.
- Sign each form.
- Turn cards over to the BCLA Office.
- Issue league cheque or send club cheques to BCLA office for each card used.

THE REGISTRAR

- Check that all forms are completely filled in and signed.
- Check card numbers against assigned numbers list.
- Date and sign each form.
- Separate each form:
 1. original - file
 2. center copy - to Commissioner
 3. last copy - to club/team

These are the steps in the initial registration of players prior to the start of the season. As players are cut and/or added, the following is the procedure:

TO ADD ANOTHER PLAYER

When less than twenty-one (21) Senior A, Intermediate A or Intermediate B; or twenty-five (25) Senior B, Senior C, Junior A or Junior B have been signed, just repeat the above four steps.

When the allowed number for the league has been signed:

- (a) The additional player completes the card (Step One)
- (b) The Team Manager completes Step Two. The Team Manager also pulls the club copy of the player's card who is cut to accommodate the new player.
- (c) The Team Manager turns both cards over to the League Commissioner, along with the required fee, to the BCLA office.

- (d) The Registrar staples all three parts of the "cut" player's forms together and files in the league file.

The Registrar then processes the new player's form as above.

NOTES

The Commissioner must ensure that there are no more than twenty-one (21) Senior A, Intermediate A or Intermediate B players; or twenty-five (25) Senior B, Senior C, Junior A or Junior B players registered at any one time.

The Registrar must insist that all copies of "cut" players' forms are returned to the BCLA Office.

A player may not sign more than one certificate in any one playing season. If a player is signed by another team in the same year, the BCLA Office must be advised. The Registrar then transfers the original certificate to the new team file, and forwards the center copy to the League Commissioner and the last copy, with the release completed on the back, to the new team.

Where an association has two or more teams in any one league, those teams must be equally balanced by calibre and strength. “A1”, “All” and “B” leagues shall be recognized by the BCLA for Provincial Championship purposes, with the exception of “A1” with the local commission and with Minor Directorate approval.

5.06 All league play must be completed prior to playdown competition.

REGULATION 6: MOVEMENT – MINOR TO SENIOR

- 6.01 No player qualified to play within the jurisdiction of the Minor Directorate shall sign a Senior player registration form.
- 6.02 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Minor Directorate player of Midget age may play up in a higher league with the permission of the Minor player's coach. There is no limit to the number of games a midget aged player may play under the Senior Directorate. The Minor coach or Minor Association designate must ensure the player's Minor obligations, including practices, league games, tournament games and Summer Games, are fulfilled before signing a one-game permit.
- 6.03 Violation of any of the above shall result in suspension of the player and the coach of the Senior Directorate team for whom he/she played.

- 8.03 Where there is no team available within the player's age group, the player may play for another association with written release from his/her home association for the current playing season only. (This release is not counted as a grandfathering year).

The only exception would be for Grandfathered players who do not require a signed release form, but must appear on the club's grandfathered list. Failure to obtain written permission prior to the registration deadline will make the current year ineligible to count towards grandfathering and may result in the player being declared ineligible. Minor Directorate Disciplinary Rules will apply.
- 8.08 Associations must provide a list of currently grandfathered players on or before May 21 of each playing year to the Registrar of the Minor Directorate. Failure to do so would make these players ineligible for provincial play.

In the Minor divisions, a player's age must be verified against one of the documents listed below.
